

This book should be seen in light of the fact there are other views concerning the return of Jesus that need to be explored, examined and digested. It can only complement and lend credibility to Rosenthal's work and certainly there are other scholars who hold to these views. Should there be slight variances in interpretation, as Bereans, we should look to God's Holy Spirit for insight and illumination...

Young believers are generally presented with one aspect of the "rapture". As they grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord, they will find there appears to be irreconcilable differences on this subject. The problem cannot lie with the Scripture. Maybe the time has come to accept that being dogmatic about certain texts supporting a doctrine, cause more problems, than those who hold to the possibility of an alternative understanding.

- From the Foreword by Mark Van Niekerk. www.hazorim.org

This book is primarily geared for those who have never really examined the topic of the rapture or have only been presented with one view. It is hoped that this introductory excursion into the rapture will be a sufficient springboard or platform to study in greater depth while maintaining respect for other pre-millenarians.

Salvador Ung Hayworth (B.A Acting Studies, University of Manchester) is a missionary with his wife, Dianne, in KwaZulu Natal, South Africa. He is currently studying his B.Th in Hermeneutics with KEDS, validated by the University of Chester. www.kwazulumission.com

The Rapture Factor

The Rapture Factor

Salvador Ung Hayworth